MTCE MONROE TOWNSHIP COMMUNITY EDUCATION A Unique Program, Serving a Unique Community

The Monroe Township Community Education program offers diverse educational and leisure time activities designed to meet the needs of every member of our community.

If you retrieved a hard copy of this brochure and have not yet subscribed for an electronic version from our website please visit us online at www.Monroe.K12.NJ.US click on Programs/Organizations tab, on the left go to List Serv to sign up now. In doing this, you will be helping us move towards our goal of "Going Green".

We are grateful for the support of the Board of Education, administration, staff, and community. Everyone's contribution to the success of the Community Education Program is greatly appreciated. Without this collaboration we would not be able to offer such a tremendous program to Monroe Residents!

Many friendships have begun here. Students become volunteers and teachers. Teachers and volunteers become students. Once people become involved with us they stay involved.

We're proud of our history, and we're proud that we continue to deliver excellence in Education as we celebrate the 2012-2013 season. We invite you to become involved during this exciting session or, plan to join us as we put together our Spring 2013 program. We need your ideas, your energy, your participation and your support.

Give me a call at (732) 887-8244 Ext. 2124 and let's talk! Looking forward to hearing from you.
Yours in Service,

Maria Naumik.

THE ARTS DANCE

BALLROOM DANCING

0100 8 T: 9/11-11/20 7:30-9:00 p.m. $89

Ken Kijak will waltz you through elegant dancing for weddings, anniversaries, or that special night out. Develop poise, grace, coordination and self-assurance while having fun learning the basics of Foxtrot, Rhumba, Cha Cha and Swing. Proper leading, following footwork techniques are stressed. Learn the steps and etiquette of formal dance to make your evening truly memorable. Partners are preferred, but not required. Please wear low-heeled shoes that give you proper support. No sneakers, rubber soled or open shoes.

COUNTRY LINE DANCING

0101 8 Th: 9/20-11/15 6:30-8:30 p.m. $89

Have you ever seen Country Line Dancing and wondered what it is or seen it and just wished you could do it? Or maybe you've been dancing but wanted to learn more. This is the class for you. Come join Harry Westervelt & Gail Young-Leach, The Silver Spurs, to learn the hot new dances and classic dances that will get you on the dance floor no matter where you go to dance. Line dancing is probably the most socially rewarding experience you can have. It's about lots of likeminded people getting together having fun and learning new dances. Please wear leather soled shoes (no sneakers please). Bring a bottle of water and be ready to make new friends, and have lots of fun.

FINE ARTS

LIFE DRAWING

0102 8 T: 9/11-11/20 6:30-9:00 p.m. $89

Learn to draw and paint with live models using various techniques from pencil to watercolor. Join Maurice Mahler, Art Historian, and Teacher of Art in many schools and colleges in New Jersey as he covers the effects of light on the human figure. Bring drawing pad, paper, white and black conte crayon, plus pencils or marker pens. Co-sponsored by the Monroe Township Cultural Arts Commission.

PASTELS

"Join the thousands of happy, peppy, people," who love Lucy. Sponsored by the Monroe Township Cultural Arts Commission.

LITERATURE

EDGAR ALLAN POE

0112 I T: 10/30 7:00-8:00 p.m. $8

Come and celebrate the spirit of Halloween by listening to a talk on Edgar Allen Poe by our own local "expert" on Poe, Irene Curran, a teacher of 34 years in Monroe Township. This is her second annual talk and this year, the talk will be centered around some of his short stories, such as "The Tell Tale Heart," "The Black Cat", "The Masque of the Red Death" and "The Pit and the Pendulum" – Poe was the first author to write macabre for the sole purpose of scaring the reader and as a result, is called "The Master of the Macabre". Come listen and learn about one of America's most celebrated authors ...

Sponsored by the Monroe Township Cultural Arts Commission.

NEW! CHARLES DICKENS

0113 I T: 11/20 7:00-8:00 p.m. $8

In the spirit of the coming holiday season, come listen to a lecture by Irene Curran on the author often called "The Father of Christmas", Charles Dickens second greatest writer of all literature. In 1843, the same year that the Christmas card came out, Dickens wrote "The Christmas Carol" and it was received with great acclaim, public and critical. Come hear about this story and how it came to be and about the life of Charles Dickens, the good and the bad!! You will not be bored or disappointed!!! Sponsored by the Monroe Township Cultural Arts Commission.

The following two lectures will be presented by Nicholas Oliva, a poet, photographer, audio engineer, and an Entertainment /Technical Director for many years in Nevada, Puerto Rico, and NJ. To date he has written 2 books, the 1st entitled "Only Moments" a time-traveling novel that follows the lifetime journey of the professional musical careers of two lovers that begins in the year of 2020 and reverts to 1970 where the characters relive their experiences and the 2nd a non-fiction book about spirituality and his near-death experience or NDE.

NEW! THE ORIGINS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

0114 1 TH: 11/1 7:00-9:00 p.m. $8

This lecture will detail the historical non-religious aspects of the evolution of what is now the modern-day King James Bible and how and where each of the many versions came to be. It begins with the time of the decree of King Constantine in 325AD for a codex for this "new Christianity" and will show how The Bible was used as a tool of empowerment for the Roman Empire's Holy Catholic Church to bestow what is essentially the divine right of Kings to rule their subjects as part of what was the "Church/State" that existed up until the American Revolution. This is a historical lecture regarding the evidence of the transformation of both language and form of the New Testament and not a debate or discussion of whether it is the actual "Word of God." There will be a question and answer session following the lecture. Sponsored by the Monroe Township Cultural Arts Commission.

NEW! THE GOLDEN RIVER BEYOND: A NEAR DEATH EXPERIENCE
